

Mashujaa Day also known as Heroes' Day ("mashujaa" is Swahili for "heroes"), is a national day in Kenya which is observed on 20th October as a public holiday to collectively honour all those who contributed towards the struggle for Kenya's independence. It was previously known as Kenyatta Day which was celebrated to commemorate the detention in Kapenguria of freedom fighters Achieng' Oneko, Bildad Kaggia,

Fred Kubai, Jomo Kenyatta, Kung'u Karumba

and

Paul Ngei,

often referred to as the

Kapenguria Six

. However, following the promulgation of the Constitution of Kenya in August 2010, Kenyatta Day was renamed as Mashujaa Day.
